

Deer Park Roofing,

I would like to thank you and your company for the roofing work carried out on our home. My wife and I are both very pleased with the workmanship and detail put in and it looks great.

What a difference this has been from the experience I had one year ago when I foolishly hired a "storm chaser" to put on a new roof. To be replacing a new roof after just one year has been a terrible lesson in making sure to research the contractor you hire to work on your home. I searched Angie's list, the Better Business Bureau and also had some word of mouth references for Deer Park roofing and you did not disappoint.

We will definitely recommend your company to family and friends.

A special thanks to Stan, Don, Roy, Dave, Jay and Jimmy. They all worked with care and professionalism. When I was at the house while they worked they always explained what they were doing and I could see the pride they all had in their work.

Thank you once again.

Sincerely,
